

Hehe, today is April Fool's Day, I'll use this opportunity to confess!

!!

Wait! Since it's April Fool's, what I say and what I mean should be reversed!

In other words, I should say "I don't like you"
for Green to understand that I actually like him!

Also, the more realistically
I describe my feelings,
the more likely he is
to figure out how deep they run!

You there, stop!

You're both selfish and stingy,
plus condescending as well!
I've been putting up with you for far too long, today I have to settle my scores with you!

I like you.

Uh...
Uh-hh...?
